Strongly encourage but not require.

-Donna Cassidy: Shared that there is an ANA Webinar coming up about the vaccine Put on by Pfizer. She will share out to the board. Do admit active Covid patients; but are taking on overflow and those patients that continue to require vents.

-Julie Eilenberg: Felt that the students were better prepared to flex if they were not able to be face-to-face all semester. Resilient. They use software called Goreact.

-Patti Henning: Proud of our team; happy to work with Patrick and faculty and Staff.

-Robin Schenk: 1st semester. Swiftriver virtual platforms. Did not get to do Clinicals.

-Michelle Yinger: RN to BSN coordinator at WMU shared that the program has traditionally been online.

-Kate Miller: Looking to bring on two instructors.

-Diana Multer: NUR 105 in 1st semester. Excited about the new Pharmacology Curriculum.

-Sarah Barker: Hospitals are more than double than the spring. And numbers Continue to rise. PPE challenges ebbs and flows. Hiring every position. Limited extern experience.

-Mary McConnell: manages the KVCC job board.

-Chris Stroven: Excited about the new admissions process.

-Victoria Hileski: Appreciate hospitals for continuing to allow our students attend clinicals.

-Theresa McFall: Supports instructors for labs. NURS 102 has not been able to Stay in clinicals and so we are accommodating.

-Katelyn Vinson: Phlebotomy Academy is wrapping up today. Most was online and the Groves campus hosted labs.
