Kalamazoo Valley Community College was once again named a Veteran-Friendly School, with gold level status, by the Michigan Veterans Affairs Agency (MVAA).

The MVAA also certified the college as an official Veteran Connector school, a program that connects veterans to benefits and resources in all areas of life, including education, employment and health care.

The Michigan Veteran-Friendly Schools Program recognizes academic institutions committed to supporting the needs of veterans and military-connected students. These institutions are awarded gold, silver and bronze-level status based on their veteran-centric services and programs.

Kalamazoo Valley's Veteran Services Coordinator Charles Heidelberg said it is an honor to be named a 2022 Veteran Friendly School.

"Achieving gold-level status for the second year in a row is a real testament to the college's efforts to not just be veteran-friendly for our more than 250 student veterans, but veteran-embracing," Heidelberg said. "We work tirelessly to create a smooth transition from soldier to student, supporting these men and women every step of the way."
